

High Street Board of Directors Appoints Kyle Schneweis Chief Executive Officer December 1, 2020

High Street Consulting Group is pleased to announce Kyle Schneweis as the firm's Chief Executive Officer. Kyle comes to High Street from the Nebraska Department of Transportation (NDOT) where he served as CEO for five and a half years. During his tenure at NDOT, Kyle made many significant operational achievements and advancements in building critical infrastructure that helps communities across Nebraska stay connected. Governor Ricketts congratulated Schneweis on his move to High Street, saying "Kyle is one of the best in his field, and I personally appreciate all his contributions."

"Kyle is the right person to lead High Street into the future," says Craig Secrest, High Street's managing partner. "He has the proven leadership talent and breadth of transportation experience to help us grow. With Kyle at the helm, we will forge new client relationships and build our reputation for innovation, while upholding the emphasis we place both on making the firm a great place to work and delivering value to our clients."

Before becoming the NDOT Director, Kyle held several leadership positions at the Kansas Department of Transportation, including serving as Chief of Government Affairs where he played a key role in passing the state's $8 billion, 10-year T-WORKS infrastructure investment program. "I am truly honored to lead our extraordinary firm as High Street's first Chief Executive Officer," says Schneweis. "High Street has some of the most talented people in our industry and I look forward to steering the team's growth by remaining laser-focused on delivering innovative solutions for our clients and by providing the best career experiences for our people."

About High Street

High Street is a leading consultant to the transportation sector. We offer inspired solutions for a complex world. Our core practice areas include long-range transportation investment strategy; performance-based planning and programming decision-support tools; data analytics and visualization; and organizational design. Our clients include state departments of transportation, the U.S. Department of Transportation and its modal administrations, the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials, the Transportation Research Board and its cooperative research programs, and metropolitan planning organizations and other regional and local transportation agencies across the country.

High Street is headquartered in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with a staff of 25 transportation experts located across 13 states.